

EVOLUTION MEGALAB NEWSLETTER: ISSUE 7 DECEMBER 2008

DEVELOPMENT WORK

The development work on the website has now begun. From the feedback we have received there are three main areas that need developing:

1. Look into the possibility of there being a customisable page on the website for each country to place their own content, web links etc.
2. Updating the content of certain pages on the website to make them more informative and accessible.
3. Re-design of the content of certain pages on the website to help make them more accessible.

The final version of the website is planned to be released in mid March.

TRANSLATED DOCUMENTS

Thank you to all who have sent the translations through. I hoping these will be up on the website in the early New Year.
