Suicide and Gender:

In most Western countries females have higher rates of suicidal ideation and behavior than males, yet mortality from suicide is typically lower for females than for males. The realization that cultural influences play an important role in the gender paradox of suicidal behaviors holds important implications for research and for public policy.

Silvia Sara Canetto
Ph.D., Professor, Dept. of Psychology, Colorado State University (USA)

11 gennaio 2018 - Ore 12 - Aula Canani