Academic Information

Course Catalogue	http://www.uni-bremen.de/en/studies/lecture-courses/courses.html The final version of the course list is usually published in August/September for the winter semester and in February/March for the summer semester. The main teaching language at the University of Bremen is German. The recommended German level to follow courses is B2 (according to the European language framework). There is a growing variety of courses offered in English in different departments. To view courses taught in English please select the respective field of studies and then click on the button at the top listed "English spoken only". There are also courses taught in English in "Global Education" for incoming exchange students. To view courses in Global Education scroll down to the bottom of the course list.
Language Requirements	German: B2 English (for English taught courses only): B2
Grading System	Sehr gut (Marks 1 and 1,3): Very good Gut (Marks 1,7; 2 and 2,3): Good Befriedigend (Marks 2,7; 3 and 3,3): Satisfactory Ausreichend (Marks 3,7 and 4): Sufficient Nicht ausreichend (Mark 5): Not sufficient/fail An ECTS grading scale is not available.

Practical Information

Visa	Non-EU nationals have to apply for a student's visa at the nearest German Embassy or Consulate before entering Germany. Invitation Letters and Letters of Acceptance are issued upon receipt of the applications documents. Contact: incoming@uni-bremen.de
Immigration procedure	Registration of Residence (Meldebestätigung) : All foreign incoming students have to register with the city's authorities (BSU) within 2 weeks after taking residence in Bremen. Residence Permit: Non-EU nationals have to apply for a residence permit with the immigration authorities, at the latest 4 weeks before expiry of the entry visa. The newcomer service team will assist with the necessary formalities.
Health insurance	Exchange students are required to have a valid health insurance for the whole duration of their stay that is equivalent to the German statutory health insurance, i.e. unlimited coverage of all treatments (incl. dental, psychological and pregnancy care). EU-Nationals: European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) is accepted (English and French nationals should apply for EHIC as early as possible!) Turkish Nationals: TA11 or TA9 form issued by SSK (Sosyal Sigortalar Kurumu) is also accepted. Non-EU Nationals should buy a German statutory health insurance upon arrival (cost: 78,30 € per month; July 2014) with one of the health insurance companies (AOK, TK) on campus. We recommend an additional travel insurance for the time gap between departure of the home country and the first day of the semester (1.10./1.4.) Foreign private health insurances for the purpose of visa applications are not accepted if they limit the coverage of cost or the duration of validity. Students will have to buy the statutory health insurance in addition to the foreign private health insurance. Please check with incoming@uni-bremen.de for advice.
Housing	Website: http://www.uni-bremen.de/en/international/your-stay-in-bremen/housing.html Students have to notify our accommodation team if they wish to get assistance in finding accommodation by ticking the appropriate box in the online application form. Contact: incoming@uni-bremen.de
Newcomer Service	The "Newcomer Service" for incoming students provides - orientation weeks and German intensive language courses 3 weeks before the start of lectures - special consultation hours of the Erasmus departmental coordinators during the orientation week - advice on all questions regarding arrival, registration, accommodation etc. by student tutors at a "Welcome Desk" - access to our online platform "Newcomer Portal" containing a timeline and many valuable information about living and studying in Bremen. Details will be circulated to all incoming Erasmus Students a few weeks before the start of the semester.
Language courses	There is an optional intensive German language course during the orientation weeks organized by the Goethe Institut Bremen at the cost of 152 Euro (as per July 2014) for a three-weeks-course. Students will receive 6 ECTS upon successful participation (levels A1-B2). Admission only for registered Erasmus students who have participated in the online placement test sent by Goethe Institut after the end of the online registration period. Students will get one German language course for 6 ECTS free of charge during the semester.
Transportation	Upon payment of the "semester contribution" (Wintersemester 2014/15: 222,80€) students will receive a "Semesterticket", so they can use all public transport in and around Bremen free of charge. http://www.asta.uni-bremen.de/service/semesterticket/ The semester contribution is mandatory.
Sports facilities	Sports courses and facilities are available for incoming students on campus for a small administrative fee. http://www.hospo.uni-bremen.de/
