

Private International Law of Contractual and Non-Contractual Obligations Program (Overview)

Part I: General Introduction

- § 1 Some basic notion of Private International Law
- § 2 Sources of PIL regarding contractual and non-contractual obligations

Part II: Jurisdiction to adjudicate

- § 3 The General and Main Rule of the Defendant's Domicile (Art. 4 Brussels I bis)
- § 4 Outline and Scope of the Regulation Brussels I bis
- § 5 Purpose and Grounds of Alternative Jurisdiction
- § 6 Matters relating to contracts
- § 7 Matters relating to torts
- § 8 Protective Contracts – Insurance and Consumers
- § 9 Choice of Court Agreements (Art. 25 Brussels I bis)
- § 10 Choice of Court Agreements in Consumer and Insurance Contracts
- § 11 Choice of Court Agreements according to the 2005 Hague Convention

Part III: Parallel Proceedings

- § 12 Danger of parallel proceedings and the need for coordination
- § 13 First in time principle and negative declaratory actions
- § 14 Particular issues

Part IV: The Law Applicable to Cross-Border Contractual Obligations

- § 15 Material scope and general issues of the Rome I Regulation
- § 16 Freedom of choice
- § 17 Applicable law in the absence of choice
- § 18 Consumer contracts
- § 19 Formal validity
- § 20 Voluntary assignment and set-off
- § 21 Hague Principles on Choice of Law for International Contracts

Part V: The Law Applicable to Cross-Border Non-Contractual Obligations

- § 22 Material scope and general issues of the Rome II Regulation
- § 23 The general rule in Art. 4 Rome II regarding torts
- § 24 Culpa in contrahendo (Art. 12 Rome II)
- § 25 Freedom of choice (Art. 14 Rome II)
- § 26 Torts under the national rules of Private International Law