VERSE

I was a stranger in the city,
Out of town were the people I knew.
I had that feeling of self-pity:
What to do, what to do, what to do?
The outlook was decidedly blue.
But as I walked through the foggy streets alone
It turned out to be the luckiest day I've known.

CHORUS

A foggy day in London town	A
Had me low, had me down.
I viewed the morning with alarm,	B
British Museum had lost its charm.
How long, I wondered, could this thing last,	A
But the age of miracles hadn't passed,
For suddenly I saw you there	C
And through foggy London town
The sun was shining everywhere.
